HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE AT BOMBAY
CRIMINAL APPELLATE JURISDICTION

CRIMINAL APPLICATION NO. 2730 OF 2005.

Mr. Neeraj D. Tripathi. ...Applicant.

V/s.

The State of Maharashtra. ...Respondent

Shri A.M.Saraogi, for applicant.

Shri A.S.Gadkari, APP for respondent.

CORAM: A.M.KHANWILKAR,J
DATE : APRIL 26, 2005

P.C. :-

1. Mr.Gadkari, the learned APP on instructions states that for the reasons stated in the application, the applicant be shown indulgence for a period of one week. Mr. Saraogi, the counsel for the applicant however, prays that atleast period of 10 days be granted as the applicant will be required to attend last rites of the deceased. Mr. Gadkari, the learned APP states that the investigating officer has not been able to verify the correctness of the statement of the applicant. But accepting the version stated on affidavit by applicant as it is, limited indulgence be shown.

2. Accordingly, this application is disposed of by granting 10 days time from today to the applicant to surrender before the investigating officer, in terms of order dated 13th April, 2005.

3. Assurance is given on behalf of the applicant through his advocate that till the applicant returns to Mumbai, his father will stay back in Mumbai and report to the Investigating Officer daily between 5 to 7 p.m. for one week from today as even he will have to proceed to Delhi to attend last rites of the close deceased relative.
